Bringing smiles to Brookings!

Bel has invested more than $140 million to build a new 170,000 square-foot Mini Babybel manufacturing facility in Brookings, SD. This new state-of-the-art plant is now our flagship facility in terms of automation, equipment, processing and efficiency and is being built to meet LEED certification.

We began commercial production in July 2014. Our Brookings plant has an annual production capacity of more 22 million pounds of Mini Babybel and will require more than 500,000 pounds of milk daily. View a PDF of our milk receiving and processing update.

We have hire more than 200 new employees in Brookings and will have 250 salaried and hourly employees on staff by year-end 2014!

See what a smile can do for your career. Join the Bel team. Check our Careers section for open positions and apply online.

The new Brookings Plant is located at:

BACON EATING CONTEST!

Do you love bacon? Prove it!! Enter the Appalachian Bacon Nation Bacon Eating Contest!

Participants will have a predetermined amount of time to consume as much bacon as their bodies will allow. Prizes will be awarded to the winner of each "heat". Number of heats will be determined by the number of participants signed up.

Additional rules will be given at the time of the contest...basically just eat as much bacon as you can in the time allowed. All eaters must sign the bacon waiver before participating and be 18 years old or older at the time of the event.

See the bacon waiver form below...copies will be available prior to the contest or just print your own copy, sign it and bring it with you to the festival.
