Old Order Amish as a Percentage of all Residents, 2000

There is one area, however, in which Ethridge outdoes Lancaster County and perhaps all other Amish communities—and that's in its industrial-strength tourist carriages.

In fact, these wagons are really closer to horse-drawn buses, as you can see from the photo. They set off from a number of venues on the “Amish strip”, and trundle a route around the community which takes them near the local produce auction and by numerous Amish businesses.
