

Alphabetical List of Locations

- Armenia / Azerbaijan
- Bosniaks / Croats / Serbs
- Catalonia
- Chechnya
- Crimea
- Cyprus / Turks
- Flanders / Wallonia
- Hungarians
- Kurds
- Sardinia
- South Tyrol
- Wales

This region has three main language communities and a multilingual capital.

This region has Muslims, Catholics, and Eastern Orthodox religions.

This region has been known as the “break away republic.” It is majority Muslim.

This ethnic group does not have a country of its own. They are spread across four countries.

The regions two main countries have been involved in conflict. One country is Christian and the other Muslim.

This region’s main language is the same language as the country that borders it on the north.

This region has its own parliament, and it has passed laws to protect its language.

The southern part of this region is recognized as a country.

This region was illegally annexed by a neighboring country in 2014.

This region voted in 2012 to secede from its country, and the vote failed by one vote.

This region has had several referendums on independence from the country in which it is located.

This country has passed language laws to limit the use of this minority’s language.